

#1: The Selection

Dr. Stephen G. Tan | 2 Samuel 12; 1 Chronicles 22, 28

ABOUT THE SERIES

The captivating life of King Solomon shows that even the wisest can climb sky-high or hit rock bottom. This series delves into his story to help us see how the choices we make shape our journey and determine the direction our lives take.

MESSAGE

Watch the sermon. As you watch, use the outline to follow along or take notes on anything that stands out to you.

NOTES

Every follower of Jesus has an opportunity to be greatly used by God in this lifetime. How does God select those He will use for His glorious purpose? What is it that God is looking for to choose people to make an impact in this world? Here are four biblical principles.

God uses flawed and imperfect people (2 Samuel 12:24-25; 1 Chronicles 28:5)

God gives each person a unique life purpose (1 Chronicles 22:6-10)

God looks for a heart that genuinely seeks him (1 Chronicles 28:9)

God desires a heart that is faithful, available, and teachable (1 Chronicles 29:1-3; 18-19)

REFLECT and DISCUSS

1. Take a few minutes to talk about the message. What part of the teaching had the most impact on you?
2. Do you believe God can use you to make an impact? Why or why not? If you are a follower of Jesus, how are you letting God use you for His purpose?
3. Honestly examine yourself: Where is your heart? Is it aligned with God's will? Do you genuinely seek God? How are you cultivating a heart that is faithful, available, and teachable?
