

#2: Outmaneuvered

Dr. Stephen G. Tan | 1 Kings 1:1-53

ABOUT THE SERIES

The captivating life of King Solomon shows that even the wisest can climb sky-high or hit rock bottom. This series delves into his story to help us see how the choices we make shape our journey and determine the direction our lives take.

MESSAGE

Watch the sermon. As you watch, use the outline to follow along or take notes on anything that stands out to you.

NOTES

We live in a world where politics and power play run common not only in the political world but also in the workplace, school, hobby groups, or among family members. As a follower of Jesus, how should you act and what should you do when you feel you are being outplayed and outmaneuvered by those around you? Take a look at these four biblical principles:

Realize looks can be deceiving (v. 1-10)

Find out what is right and clarify what is true (v. 11-31)

Take action to stand for what is right (v. 32-40)

Show grace and mercy when given the opportunity (v. 41-53)

REFLECT and DISCUSS

1. Take a few minutes to talk about the message. What part of the teaching do you resonate with the most?
2. How do you think can you be more discerning and wise when dealing with people who play politics?
3. In what ways do you find it challenging to stand up for God's truth?
4. When was the last time that you felt God's grace and redemption in your life? How has this made an impact in the way you deal with other people?

PRAYER

Close your time together with prayer.
