

Come and Eat

Dr. Stephen Tan | John 21:1-14

MESSAGE

Watch the sermon. As you watch, use the outline to follow along or take notes on anything that stands out to you.

NOTES

There are days when everything that's happening feels like it's too much to handle and you just need a little TLC to make you feel better. What can a resurrected Savior do for you to calm and assure your heart during those times that you need it most? Let's take a look at this account of a poignant encounter between Jesus and His disciples in John 21:1-14.

A full and successful life relies on the power of a resurrected Savior (v. 1-3)

The resurrected Savior brings blessing in overabundance because of His grace (v. 4-6)

Refreshment and encouragement come when we fellowship with the resurrected Savior (v. 7-14)

REFLECT and DISCUSS

1. Take a few minutes to read the passage and talk about the message. What part stood out the most to you?
2. Would you say that placing your trust in a resurrected Jesus Christ as your Savior has given you a full and satisfying life? Why so?
3. Respond to this: It doesn't matter where you go if you don't care where you end up. What does it have to do with experiencing the overabundant blessings brought by the resurrected Savior?
4. When were you the most encouraged or revitalized by your encounter with the resurrected Jesus?

PRAYER
