Talk It Through

1. How do you feel about the statement "Compassion as a compass"? In what ways can compassion guide us like a compass in our everyday lives?
2. According to the sermon, Jesus saw people through God's eyes, with compassion and a sense of purpose. What do you think this teaches us about God's character and His view of humanity?
3. Reflecting on your own life, have you felt moments when you've lost your spiritual compass? What brought this feeling on, and how did you work to realign yourself?
4. This message challenges us to "do today what Jesus did." What's one step you can take this week to be a more active witness, whether through prayer, sharing the gospel, or extending compassion to those in need?
