** KEY TAKEAWAYS **

Jesus says, when we pray,

- Relate and express our dependence to God as our Heavenly Father. (The CONTENT of our prayer)
- Approach God with shameless persistence, knowing that our prayers never bother Him. (Our CONDUCT when we pray)
- Trust that God, being a good and perfect Father, always responds with our best interest in mind. (GOD'S CHARACTER towards our prayers)

Talk It Through

1. Have you ever wondered, "If God already knows everything, why do we need to pray?" Does this align with any doubts or thoughts you've had about prayer?
2. What did you learn about how Jesus teaches us to approach God as a loving Father? How does this reshape your understanding of prayer and its purpose? In what ways does this differ from how you've approached prayer in the past?
3. What does it mean to you to approach God with shameless boldness or persistence? Do you find this easy or difficult to practice in your prayer life? Why?
4. Does your prayer life nurture a deeper relationship with God? What does this reveal about your relationship with Him? In which areas of your life do you find it easiest or hardest to rely on God, and where do you see room for improvement in how you express your dependence on Him?
5. What is one specific way you can improve the content or conduct of your prayers this week? How will you intentionally trust God's responses, even when they don't match your expectations?
