

First Things First

Dr. Stephen G. Tan | Haggai 1:1-15

Watch

Watch the sermon. As you watch, take notes on anything that stands out to you. Pay careful attention to the context of the biblical text, insights and principles highlighted, and any supporting scripture mentioned.

 KEY TAKEAWAYS

- The heart prioritizes what it loves
- There is a cost for not prioritizing God, and a benefit when you do
- Priorities are seen only when immediate action is taken
- God is with those who prioritize Him

Talk It Through

1. Have you ever felt torn between urgent tasks and what truly matters? How did you handle the situation, and what did you learn from it?
2. What insights did you gain from the message about how our priorities reflect our relationship with God? How does this perspective challenge or affirm the way you currently live?
3. Looking at your current schedule and commitments, what do your priorities reveal about what you truly value? Are there areas where your priorities don't align with your love for God?
4. What specific changes can you make this week to prioritize God in your life, whether through time, resources, or decisions? How will you ensure those changes stick?

Pray

Close your time together with prayer.
