2. The Thessalonians' faith, love, and hope were so evident that their reputation spread far and wide. What does this teach us about the impact of living out our faith in our community?
3. If someone were to describe your reputation as a follower of Christ, what do you think they'd say? Are there aspects of your life where you feel called to grow or change?
4. The message emphasized that a worthy reputation is rooted in transformation and authenticity. What is one practical way you can live out an authentic faith this week, especially in areas where your reputation could influence others for Christ?
