* KEY TAKEAWAYS ****

Every believer has a part to play in God's work. To fulfill God's ministry:

- Focus on what God wants you to do
- Be faithful
- Work hard
- Don't give up

Talk It Through

1. We often think "ministry" is just for pastors or church workers, but Scripture says every believer has a part to play. What's your honest reaction to the idea that you have a ministry from the Lord in your everyday life? Right now, would you say you're more like Archippus (unclear about your role), Epaphras (faithfully serving even when it's hard), John Mark (restored after a setback), or Demas (pulled away by the distractions of the world)?
2. Have you ever discovered a talent or skill you didn't realize could be used to serve others? What was it and how did that change the way you saw your role in God's work?
3. "Being faithful means doing what you're expected to do even without being inspected." How does that land with you? In your current season, do you find it easy or difficult to live that out?
4. Think of someone who works hard for God in ways that inspire you. What qualities do they model that you want to grow in?
5. If you've failed before or felt like giving up, what's one small step you can take this week to keep going? How might that step help you serve others more intentionally?
