Talk It Through

1. Have you ever seen a small misunderstanding grow into a bigger conflict just because nobody wanted to back down? Why do you think it's so hard for us to let things go?
2. From Samson's story, what stood out to you about how revenge affects not just one person but everyone around them? And how did this message change the way you see God's role when people hurt us?
3. If you're honest, where in your life right now do you feel the pull toward revenge, or at least holding a grudge?
4. What would it look like for you to "kill with kindness" (Romans 12 style) the next time someone offends you? Can you picture a specific step you could take?
