* KEY TAKEAWAYS ****

- Humility comes when we trust God in the timing of our rewards in this life or the next
- Humility comes when we seek God for help, recognizing our inabilities and inadequacies
- Humility comes when we reject Satan's lies about us and keep our pride in check
- Humility comes when we remember that it is God who should get all the glory

Talk It Through

1. Where do you see pride subtly showing up in your own life? Why is pride so easy to miss in ourselves, and in what ways does our culture make humility difficult to practice?
2. "Humility comes when we trust God with the timing of our rewards." Why is trusting God's timing such a significant part of staying humble?
3. What did the message teach you about how God views humility and how He responds to the humble? What did you learn about how humility grows when we depend on God, whether for His timing, His help, or His truth over the enemy's lies?
4. Which area do you personally find hardest right now: trusting God's timing, admitting your limitations, rejecting the lies of pride, or giving God all the glory? Why is that particular area especially challenging for you?
5. What is one practical way you can practice humility this week at home, at work, or in your relationships, whether by waiting on God's timing, seeking His help, resisting pride, or intentionally giving Him the glory?
