** KEY TAKEAWAYS ****

Biblical Principles on Pursuing Spiritual Maturity:

- Reflect with humility, acknowledging that we are still growing in Christ
- Learn from the past without living in it
- Fix your focus on Christ and pursue Him intentionally
- Walk faithfully with Christ without comparison

Talk It Through

1. As we approach the end of a year, people usually talk about wins, regrets, or fresh goals. Which one do you naturally gravitate toward when you reflect on your life, and why do you think that is?
2. Paul says he hasn't "arrived," yet he keeps pressing on. What did this message help you understand about what real spiritual maturity actually looks like in God's eyes?
3. When you look at your own walk with Christ, where do you notice tension right now, between gratitude for how far God has brought you and impatience or discouragement about how far you still want to grow? How does the idea that direction matters more than distance reshape how you see that tension?
4. What would it look like this week to take one small, faithful step in the direction God has already made clear, without worrying about speed or comparison?

Pray

Close your time together with prayer.
