

About the Series

How do we cope with life's many challenges and the weight of sin's consequences? How does God work in the lives of the people He loves? The book of Isaiah answers these questions and many more as it takes us on a life-changing journey from warning to redemption, reminding us of a faithful God who never leaves us, and calling us to trust the Savior who breaks through the darkness and brings hope and new life.

#1: Our Problem, God's Solution

Dr. Stephen G. Tan | Isaiah 1:1-31

» Watch

Watch the sermon. As you watch, take notes on anything that stands out to you. Pay careful attention to the context of the biblical text, insights and principles highlighted, and any supporting scripture mentioned.

*KEY TAKEAWAYS***

Scripture makes it clear that:

- God is displeased with sinful people who go through meaningless spiritual actions.
- God judges sin and will right wrongs, so repent and do what is right.
- God provides salvation to our sin problem, and also restores and blesses.

» Talk It Through

1. The sermon talked about delaying important things until the last minute. Where do you notice this kind of procrastination in your daily life, especially in your spiritual walk?
2. What stood out to you about how God sees worship that looks right on the outside but is disconnected from repentance, justice, or caring for others? What does that reveal about His heart?
3. When you look at your own faith, where might you be leaning on habits, routines, or appearances instead of a surrendered and responsive heart? What signals help you notice that?
4. God's grace doesn't just forgive—it restores and blesses. What might living out that restored identity look like for you this week, and what concrete step can you take to make it visible?

» Pray

Close your time together with prayer.
