

About the Series

How do we cope with life's many challenges and the weight of sin's consequences? How does God work in the lives of the people He loves? The book of Isaiah answers these questions and many more as it takes us on a life-changing journey from warning to redemption, reminding us of a faithful God who never leaves us, and calling us to trust the Savior who breaks through the darkness and brings hope and new life.

#9: There Will Be A Day

Dr. Stephen G. Tan | Isaiah 14:1-27

» Watch

Watch the sermon. As you watch, take notes on anything that stands out to you. Pay careful attention to the context of the biblical text, insights and principles highlighted, and any supporting scripture mentioned.

*KEY TAKEAWAYS***

Realities of the eternal future that should impact how we live our lives today:

- God will right all wrongs
- People will enter their eternal destinies
- Selfish and prideful ambitions are stopped
- God's purpose will be realized

» Talk It Through

1. When you hear the phrase "there will be a day," what comes to mind? Is it something you look forward to, something you haven't really thought about, or something that still feels distant?
2. From the message, what stood out to you about God's character, especially in how He deals with injustice, human pride, and His plans for the world? How does that shape your understanding of what really matters in life?
3. If you're honest, which truth is hardest for you to live in light of right now: that God will right all wrongs, that eternity is real, that pride will be humbled, or that God's plan will prevail? Why do you think that is?
4. What's one area of your life right now (decisions, priorities, ambitions, etc.) that might need to change if you truly lived with eternity in mind?

» Pray

Close your time together with prayer.
