

Thank You, Lord

Rev. Victor Ramoy | Luke 17:11-19

Watch

Watch the sermon. As you watch, take notes on anything that stands out to you. Pay careful attention to the context of the biblical text, insights and principles highlighted, and any supporting scripture mentioned.

* KEY TAKEAWAYS ****

When we take a moment to look back at what God has done and recognize His goodness in our lives, we begin to see that we have more than enough reasons to say, "Thank You, Lord."

- We have received mercy from Him
- God has done great things for us
- God, in His goodness and generosity, gives us what we truly need

Talk It Through

1. What is something you have today that you once prayed for, hoped for, or wished you could have? Have you ever gotten so used to having it that you stopped appreciating it? Why do you think it's so easy to take good things for granted?
2. Read Luke 17:11-19. All ten lepers were healed, but only one returned to thank Jesus. What stands out to you about the way this man responded? What does his story teach us about recognizing God's goodness and responding to His mercy?
3. Jesus didn't just give the Samaritan what he initially asked for. The sermon also reminds us that God sometimes gives us what we truly need, even when it's different from what we want. How does this shape the way we understand God's goodness, especially when our prayers aren't answered the way we hoped?
4. Think about a prayer that God hasn't answered in the way you wanted, or a difficult situation that hasn't changed. What might it look like to recognize His goodness and be thankful even while you're still waiting or struggling?
5. The sermon challenged us to notice God's goodness, return to Him in gratitude, and let our thankfulness overflow into how we treat others. Which of these three do you need to be more intentional about this week?

Pray

Close your time together with prayer.